

Figure S1. Estimated VI values compared with sensitivity analysis VI values. Grey points and error bars represent the median and 90% HDI estimates based on the sensitivity analysis, and black points represent our calculated VIs for each species based on the best available data. The blue dotted line denotes the mean calculated VI value across all species in the analysis.